

DRINK N' CLIP™

Bottle Holder

You might look at the humble design of our Nite Ize Drink 'N Clip™ Bottle Holder and say to yourself, "Really?" Well, to answer your question, "Yes. Really."

When clipped onto a bottle with a neck, the Nite Ize Drink 'N Clip Bottle Holder becomes an instant handle. Not only is that incredibly convenient, it also means while you're enjoying the cold beverage of your choice, you won't have a drippy, sweaty bottle in your hands. But the best feature of the Drink 'N Clip is this: when you're trekking through an airport, at a concert, out hiking, playing disc golf or lawn games—you can clip this puppy right onto your belt or pocket, bottle and all, and bam! You're hands-free for the task at hand, with your beverage right at your side. Imagine the envious looks you'll get from the Drink 'N Clip-less crowd, walking around juggling their drippy, sweaty bottles, wishing they could put them down for a moment, wishing they were you. As an added bonus, the Drink 'N Clip comes with a Size #0 Plastic S-Biner that will allow you to clip it nearly anywhere when it's not in use, keeping it handy for your next beverage.
